

THE RESIGNATION OF KEPOKAI

QUEEN ASKS ONLY $250,000

(Associated Press Cable to The Star.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 14.—Ex-Queen Liliuokalani of the Hawaiian Islands today appeared before the Claims Committee of the House of Representatives to press crown land indemnity claims growing out of the taking over of the islands by this government. The former monarch of Hawaii was accompanied by Prince Kuhio, Delegate to Congress from the Territory of Hawaii, and Princess Kahanaloa, the Delegate's wife. Judge Francis M. Hatch presented an argument on behalf of Liliuokalani, asking for a quarter of a million dollars in full settlement of the Queen's claims. During Judge Hatch's presentation of this proposition the Queen had nothing to say, though she nodded approval of Judge Hatch's argument.

FLOCKING VISITORS

COTTAGES AND ROOMS IN DEMAND FOR PEOPLE NOW ARRIVING IN HONOLULU.

Secretary H. P. Wood, in his weekly letter to the Hawaii Promotion Committee, says:

"Each steamer now calling at Honolulu contributes its quota of home-seekers, investors and tourists. Arrivals for the past two months have been unusually large and it is pleasing to be able to report that the prospects favor a record breaking season. By the first steamer in February, we will actively commence our campaign for next summer's travel in which I believe we are also going to be successful."

"Within the past month, we have had an unusually large inquiry for cottages and rooms, with and without board. While we have quite a complete list of the boarding houses throughout the city, it would prove of assistance if those of our citizens having furnished cottages or rooms to let would send in word to the committee in order that the information may be filed for future use."

Mr. Wood mentions inquiries regarding homes and investments, from a small farmer in South Carolina, a miner, in Alaska with $4,000 to invest and a resident of Richmond, Va., with $3,000 capital and a regular income of $12,000.

Consul General Michael at Calcutta wants more "Crossroads" maps of Hawaii, and Consul Conner at Saigon, China, hopes that place will be marked on the next edition of the map and says, "Some Saigon people recently returned from Europe via Hawaii and speak of your city's beauty in the highest terms and I was pleased to be able to corroborate all they said."

The Director of the Philadelphia Museum asks for an exhibit from the islands. They will build the necessary cases and give space without cost. As a basis for an exhibit, they already have the photographs, colored drawings and sketches displayed by Hawaii at the Paris Exposition.

CITY GETS THE BAND; TO MARCH TOMORROW

HONOLULU FAVORED BY FIFTH CAVALRY'S MUSICIANS STAYING IN TOWN—TROOPS MOVE ON LEILEHUA IN THE MORNING—TRANSPORT'S SAILING DELAYED—ENTRAIN TO WAIHAWA AND HIKE TO IDEAL BARRACK GROUNDS.

Off to what is going to prove one of the most delightful military camps on the top of earth, five hundred Fifth Cavalry men will at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning start for Leilehua, taking the train to Wahiawa and hiking thence to camp.

Tonight, as last night, the cavalry troops will remain aboard the transport Thomas which brought them here, for the transport, instead of sailing for Guam and Manila at 5 o'clock this evening as originally planned, will not get away until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Everything is in readiness for the reception of the horse soldiers at beautiful, breezy Leilehua. Camps and kitchens and messhalls and quarters and stables are awaiting their occupants, standing as a monument to the bustling enterprise of Construction Boss Captain Custer and when the mounted men, without their mounts which are in quarantine, hit their camp, there will be a scurrying for quarters that will long be remembered as an initiation into one of the most agreeable camping spots in the world. Good news for the city of Honolulu is conveyed in the fact that the famous band of the Fifth Cavalry will not be obliged to waste its sweetness on the far-away air of Leilehua, but will be the instrument of a patriotic musical education for those in the city of Honolulu who may be in need of such a psycho-logical treatment.

MRS. CAMPBELL-PARKER'S ESTATE AS INVENTORIED

INVENTORY OF REAL ESTATE, SECURITIES AND LIFE INSURANCE AMOUNTS TO NEARLY $400,000—ADMISSION OF WILL TO PROBATE IS POSTPONED—EMMA STREET RESIDENCE DID NOT BELONG TO THE TESTATRIX.

The inventory of the estate of Mrs. Campbell-Parker was filed this morning in the Circuit Court and at the same time a motion was made to admit the will to probate, but this matter was continued for a week in order that a settlement may be arrived at between Miss Muriel Campbell and the Hawaiian Trust Company, the temporary administrators of the estate, over some minor matter. The same attorneys represent both parties and in case of a dispute a change will be necessary.

From a search of the records of the tax office it appears that Mrs. Campbell-Parker did not own the Emma street residence which the Parker family lives in. In the will the "Emma street house and lot" were left to Miss Muriel Campbell, but this refers to the Freeth cottage and lot, makai of the residence. This is valued at $11,000.

The principal items in the inventory are as follows: Real estate Kewalo property, $2521.04; Tantalus house and lot, $3900; Emma street house and lot, $11,000. Peninsula house and lot, $10,000. Bonds: Kohala Ditch, $90,000; Olua Plantation, $29,100; O. R. & L., $4049; Alexander Young Building Company, $57,000. Notes and mortgages: Excelsior Lodge I. O. O. F., $2,500; Sam Parker note (paid), $26,700, and numerous other notes amounting to about $3000.

There are twelve life insurance policies, one of which makes Helene A. K. Kawanakoa the beneficiary in the sum of $22,000 and the second is to Mrs. Alice E. K. Macfarlane, for the sum of $22,000. A note of Princess Kawanakoa for $6800 is mentioned.

In debts due the estate there are several items, the only two large ones being $42,697.16 from Princess Kawanakoa and $23,773.26 from Mrs. A. K. Macfarlane, both amounts being advanced by Mrs. Campbell-Parker to refund two years' income of the Campbell estate which the court held had been illegally paid to the parties in question.

All told the inventory foots up a value of $394,146.48.

W. R. Grace & Co., of New York, through W. W. Diamond & Co., Ltd., engaged Professor Sedgwick to establish an experiment station at Lima, Peru. After he had fulfilled that commission he was engaged by the Peruvian government for a similar task on its behalf. Having completed this engagement he returns to Honolulu better equipped than ever for further usefulness.

An association of cattlemen is reported to be negotiating for the purchase of the Metropolitan Meat Co., the Paragon and other markets. L. L. McCandless of the Metropolitan is against the scheme.

MAUI JUDGE IS REQUESTED TO RESIGN

UNITED STATES ATTORNEY GENERAL CABLES TO THE MAUI JUDGE ASKING FOR HIS IMMEDIATE RESIGNATION—GENERAL REPORT THAT JUDGE KINGSBURY WILL BE NAMED TO SUCCEED HIM AS JUDGE OF THE MAUI CIRCUIT.

Confirmation of the announcement of the resignation of Judge Noah Kepokai of the Maui Circuit Court, which was published exclusively in The Star some three weeks ago, was received by the mail from Maui this morning. In addition to this an explanation is given of the denial made by the Judge in regard to his resignation.

Judge Kepokai on Tuesday, according to advices which come from Maui and which are from him personally, received a cablegram from Attorney General Bonaparte on Tuesday in which he was requested to forward his resignation at once. In case that this is not done he will without doubt be summarily removed from the position which he now fills.

The denial made by Kepokai that he had resigned was practically a quibble. It appears that while he did not forward his actual resignation to Washington by Governor Frear he did send a letter asking that he be allowed to resign. In other words, in case the department found that his acts had been indiscreet and constituted a cause for removal, he wished to be given an opportunity to get out in a graceful manner and without being acington some five months ago.

TRANSPORT DANCE TONIGHT AT MOANA

There will be a dance tonight at the Moana Hotel in honor of the officers and ladies of the 5th Cavalry and the Buffalo. Special arrangements have been made for a splendid musical program for a band concert by the Hawaiian band under the direction of Professor Berger, to be given before the dance, and beginning immediately after dinner.

Many parties of Honolulu people have arranged to dine at the Moana tonight to meet the officers and ladies of the Buffalo, and there should be more. Special efforts have been made to make the concert and dance a memorable one. The Hawaiian Quintet Club will furnish the dance music. All friends of the Buffalo and Moana are welcome.
